

A CELEBRATION OF LONGITUDINAL STUDENT SUCCESS

January 11, 2011

the James Irvine foundation

CART Design Principles

English

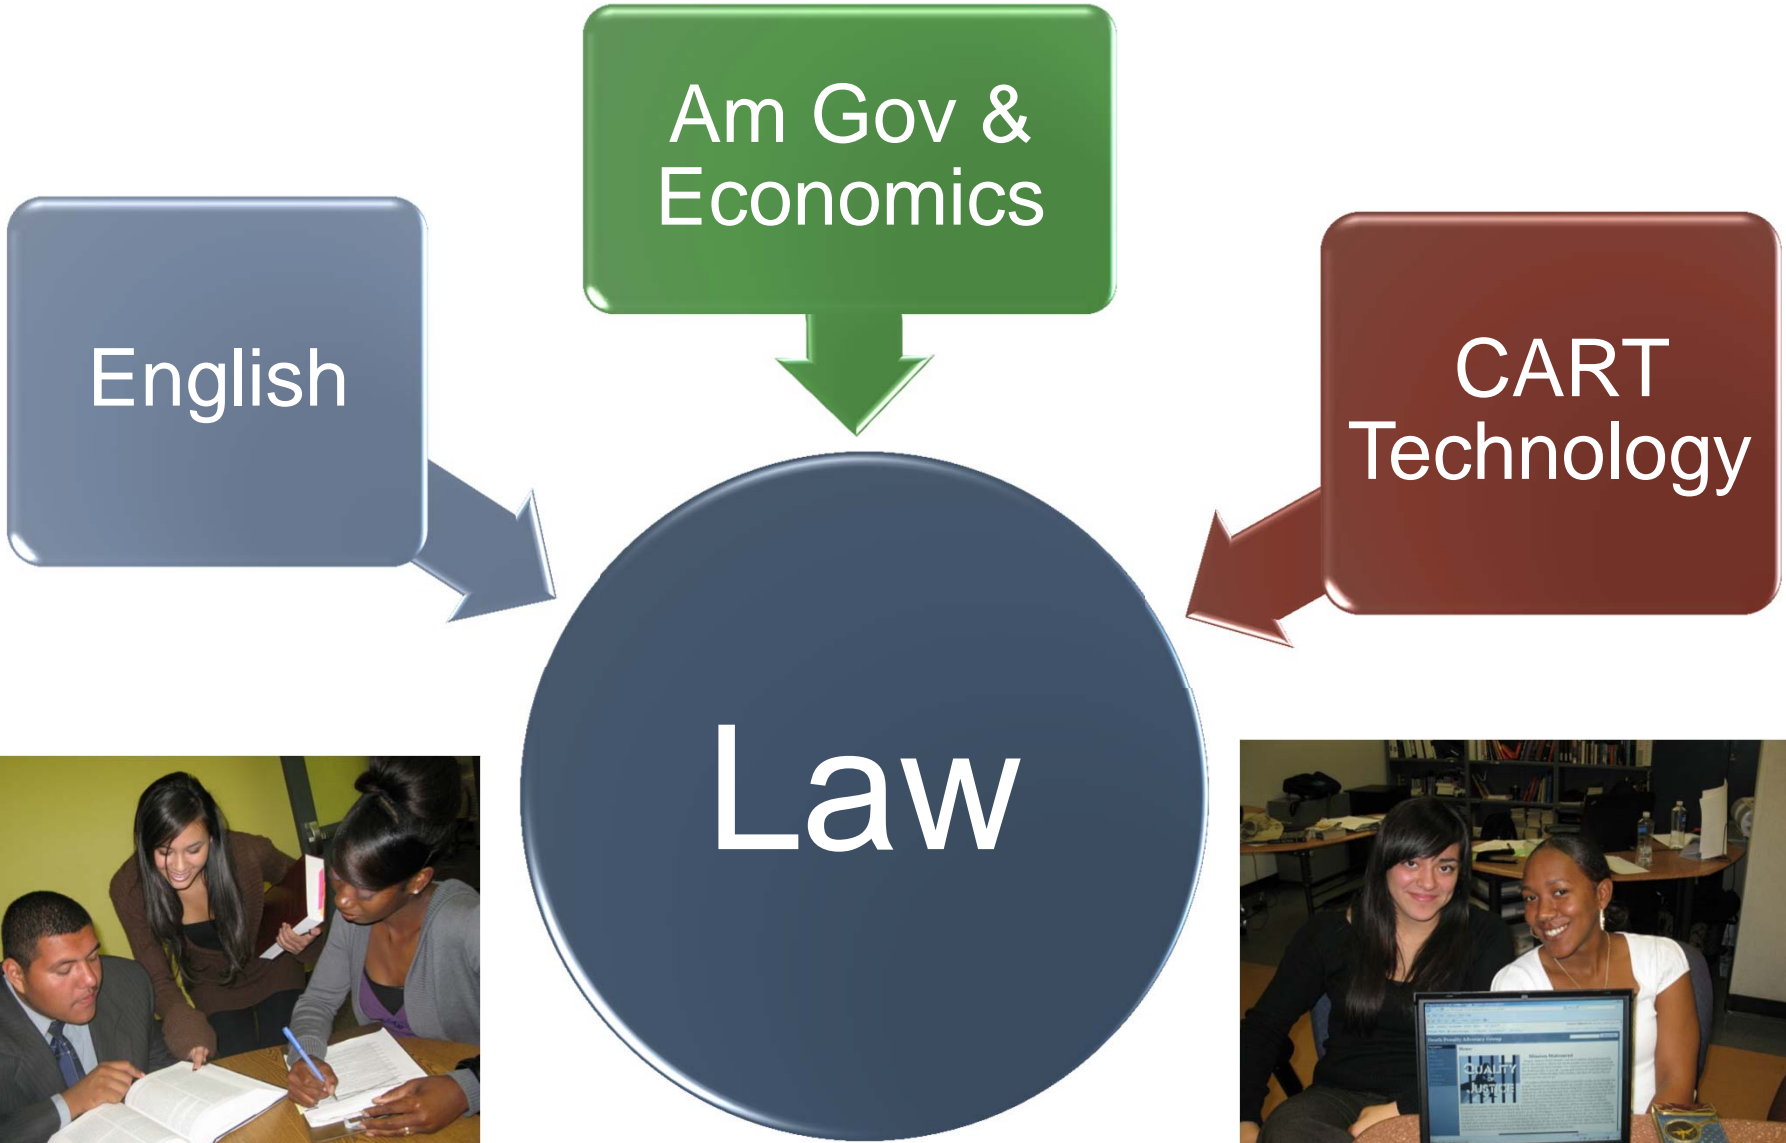

Science

Social Science

Technology

Integration

College
&
Career

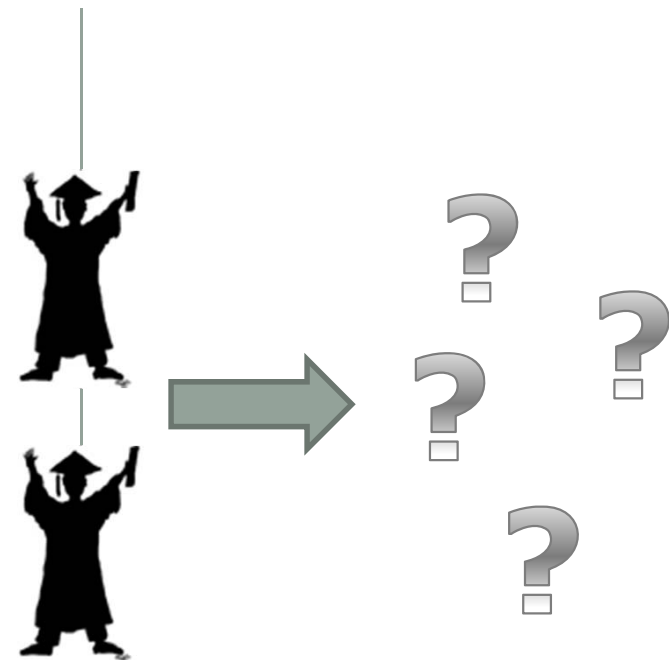

English

Chemistry
& Physics

CART
Technology

Forensics

Cal-PASS
"Success at Every Level"
the James Irvine foundation

Community College-Going Rate Comparison (% of graduates)

Source: 2008 California Postsecondary Education Commission (<http://www.cpec.ca.gov>); A Model for Success: CART's Linked Learning Program Increases College Enrollment – January 2011

UC/CSU College-Going Rate Comparison (% of graduates)

Source: 2008 California Postsecondary Education Commission (<http://www.cpec.ca.gov>); A Model for Success: CART's Linked Learning Program Increases College Enrollment – January 2011

The Critic

But CART students are different. They are a self-selected group when they apply their Sophomore Year.

Comparison Group

Sophomore Year

Junior or Senior
At CART

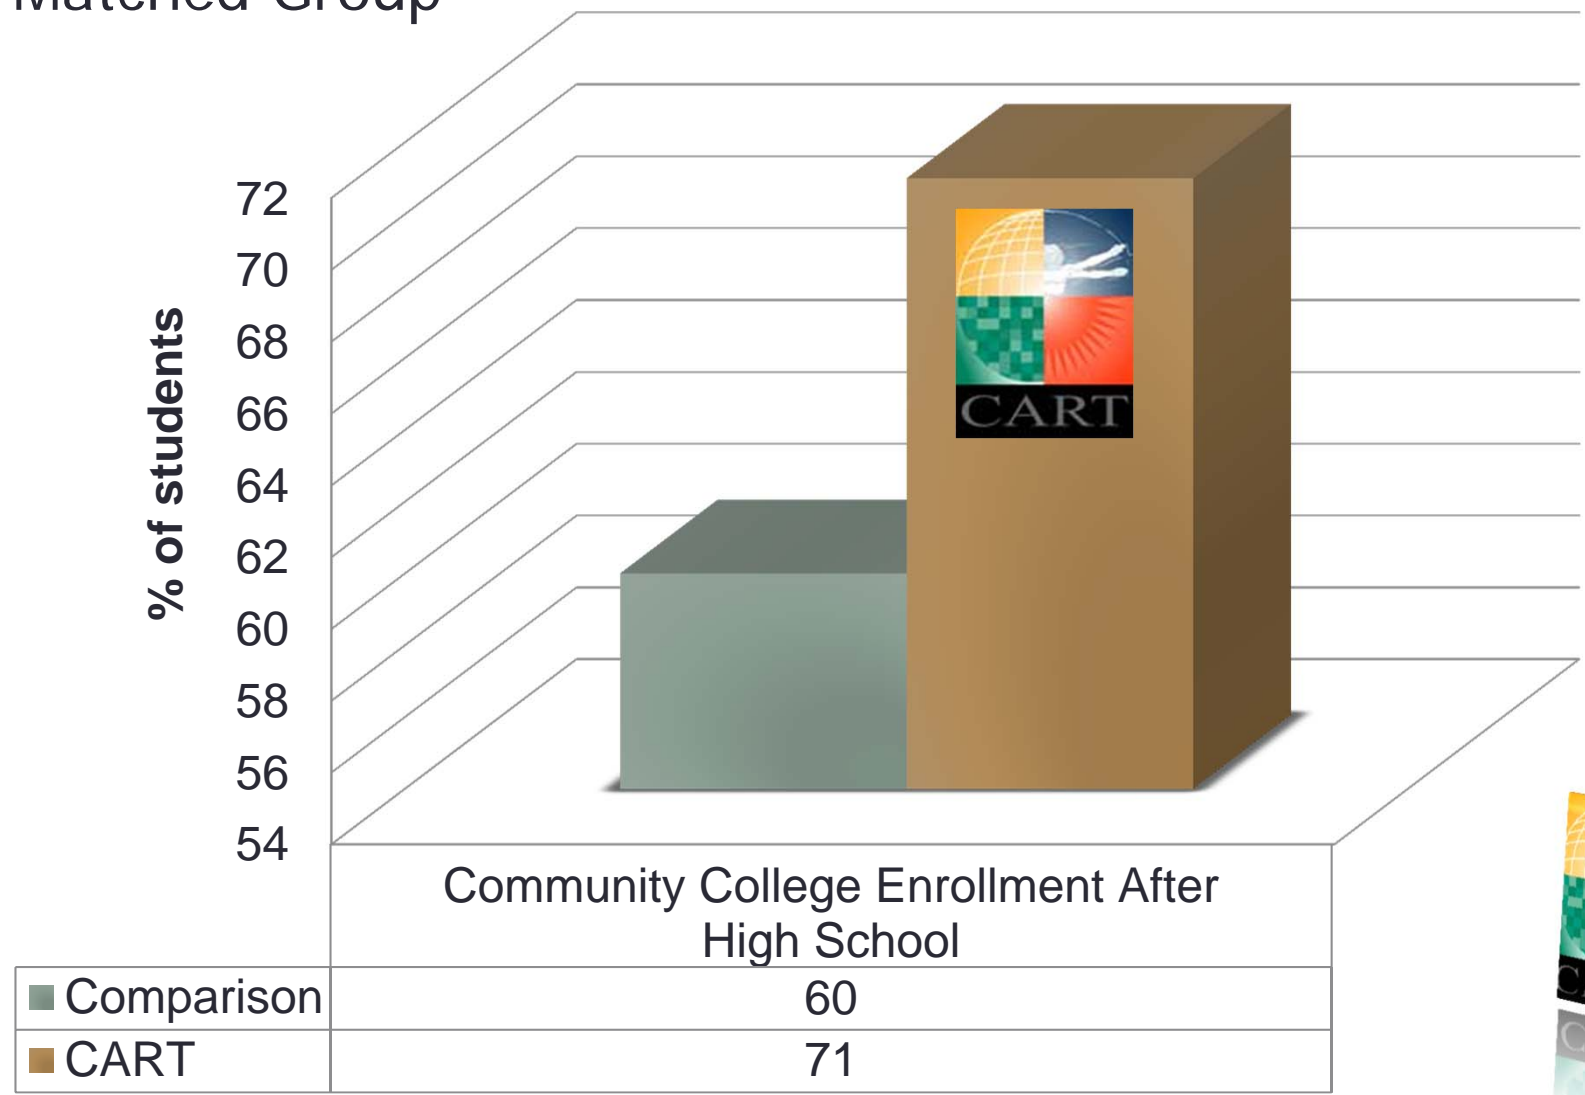

the James Irvine foundation

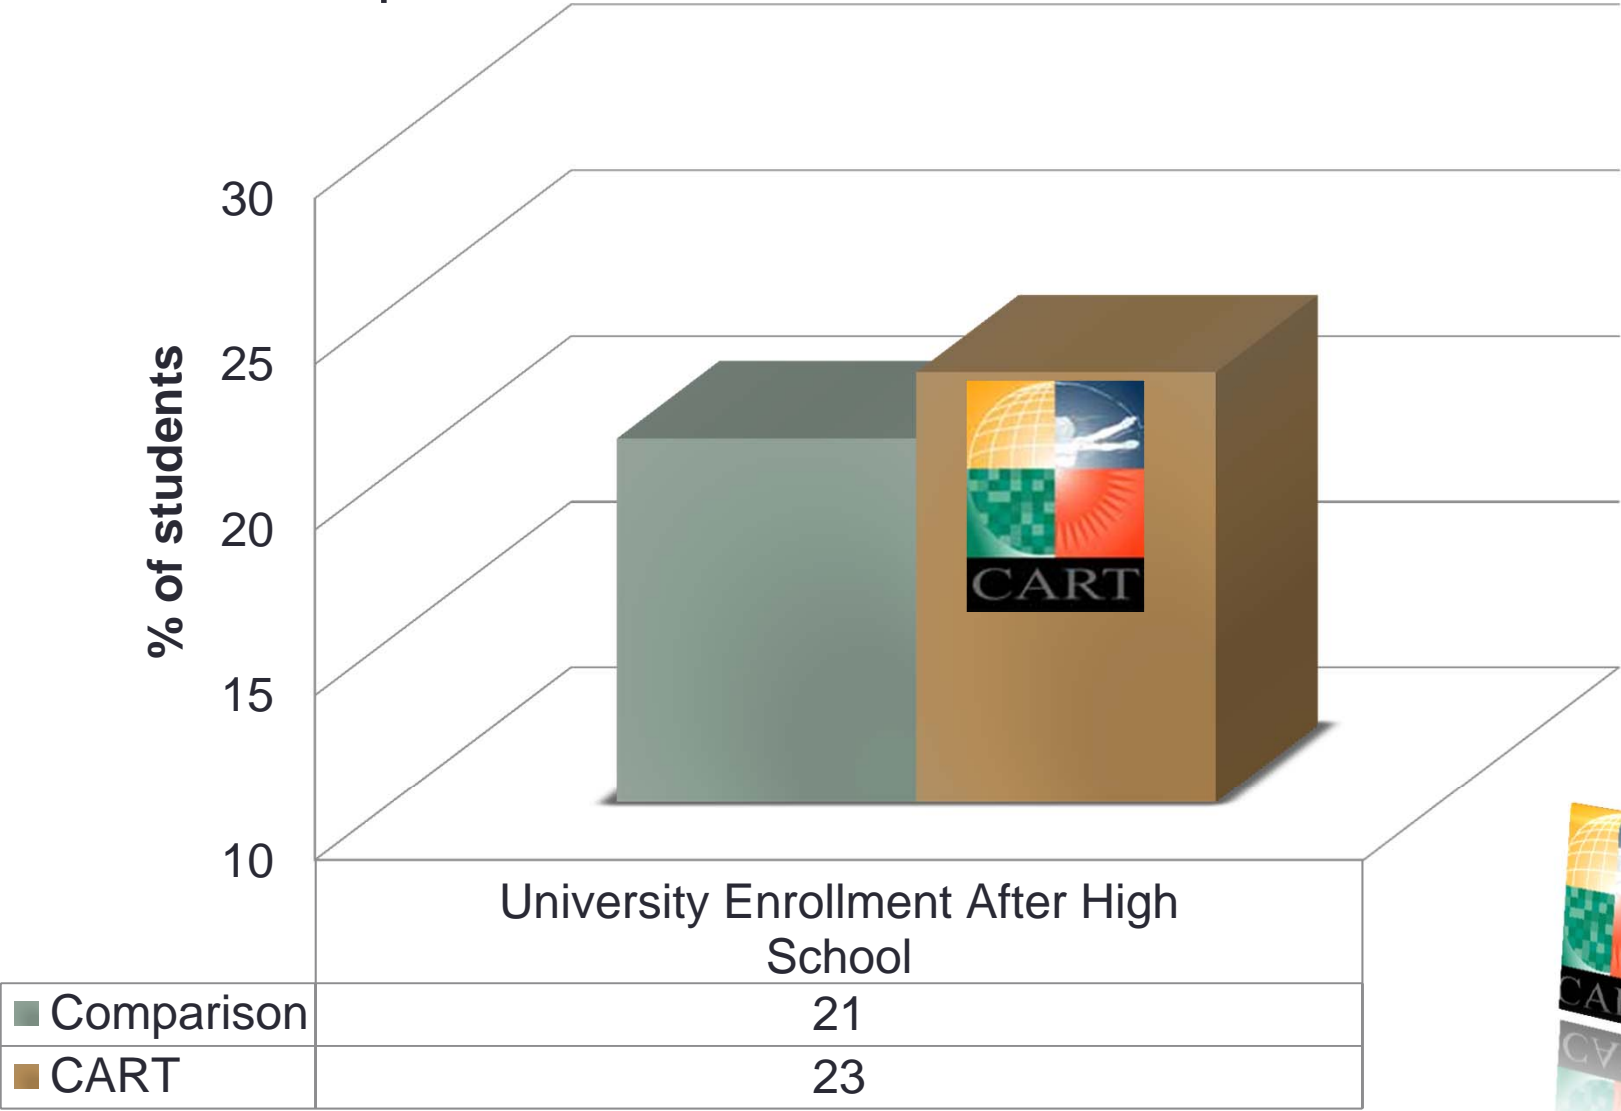

Comparison Criteria

Gender	English Proficiency
Ethnicity	Special Ed Status
CAHSEE ELA/Math	Parent Education Level
School	NSLP Participation
Home Language	CST ELA Scores

CART Community College-Going Rate Comparison to Matched Group

CART University College-Going Rate Comparison to Matched Group

The CART Effect

- Significantly more students in College than State Average
- Significantly more students in College when compared against a similar group

The CART Effect

- 3,300 CART graduates enrolled in Community College
- 1,072 CART graduates enrolled in a CSU or UC

A CELEBRATION OF LONGITUDINAL STUDENT SUCCESS

January 11, 2011

the James Irvine foundation